Overview

University of California, Los Angeles ranks 189 in the 2026 College Free Speech Rankings with a score of 55 and an F speech climate grade. New penalties from 2025 censorship cases involving a graduate-led public-health course and a student wildfire website kept its score low. The school earns a “green light” Spotlight rating but has yet to adopt the Chicago Statement or a statement on institutional neutrality.

UCLA places in the top 50 for “Self-Censorship,” indicating relatively few feel compelled to keep quiet. That lone strength is offset by serious weaknesses: the university ranks in the bottom 25 for both “Comfort Expressing Ideas” and “Administrative Support,” and in the bottom 50 for “Political Tolerance.”

UCLA could improve by adopting a free speech statement based on the Chicago Statement and making a commitment to institutional neutrality.
