Overview

Georgetown University ranks 117 out of 261 schools in the 2027 College Free Speech Rankings with a score of 61 and a D- speech climate grade.

It jumped 126 places from last year into the top 25 for "Political Tolerance," showing comparatively greater student willingness to host speakers across the ideological spectrum, but tumbled into the bottom 50 for "Disruptive Conduct," signaling student acceptance of non-peaceful forms of protest.

Georgetown adopted the pro-free speech Chicago Statement, but earns a "yellow light" Spotlight rating. It should revise student policies to earn a "green light" Spotlight rating and adopt an official commitment to institutional neutrality. Georgetown was penalized this year for terminating its affiliation with Francesca Albanese; however, because the termination was federally mandated, the incident should not have counted against its score and will not count in next year's rankings.
