Overview

Missouri State University ranks 141 out of 261 schools in the 2027 College Free Speech Rankings with a score of 59 and an F speech climate grade.

Missouri State ranks in the top 50 for “Political Tolerance,” showing comparatively greater student willingness to host speakers across the ideological spectrum. However, it lands in the bottom 50 for “Openness,” meaning many contentious topics feel off-limits to students.

The university maintains a “yellow light” Spotlight rating. It should revise its student policies to earn a “green light” Spotlight rating, adopt the pro-free speech Chicago Statement, and adopt an official commitment to institutional neutrality. Missouri State should respond clearly and forcefully to defend free speech whenever censorship occurs or is demanded. Doing so will demonstrate the university’s commitment to free speech and build community trust that the administration will defend expressive rights.
