Overview

The University of Pennsylvania ranks 227 out of 261 schools in the 2027 College Free Speech Rankings with a score of 54 and an F speech climate grade.

Penn lands in the bottom 25 for “Comfort Expressing Ideas” and “Self-Censorship,” meaning students frequently feel uncomfortable expressing their opinions and are likely to stay silent, especially on controversial topics. It ranks in the bottom 50 for “Administrative Support,” showing little student trust that officials will defend speech. The data shows no top 50 strengths.

Penn has adopted institutional neutrality but retains a “yellow light” Spotlight rating. It should revise its student policies to earn a “green light” Spotlight rating and adopt the pro-free speech Chicago Statement. Given its weak showing on “Administrative Support,” administrators should respond clearly and forcefully to defend free speech whenever censorship occurs or is demanded.
