Overview

The University of Rhode Island ranks 203 out of 261 schools in the 2027 College Free Speech Rankings with a score of 56 and an F speech climate grade.

URI lands in the bottom 25 for "Political Tolerance," showing lower student willingness to host controversial speakers. It tumbled 122 places from last year into the bottom 50 for "Openness" this year, meaning many contentious topics feel off-limits to students. The data shows no top 50 strengths.

URI retains a "yellow light" Spotlight rating. It should revise student policies to earn a "green light" Spotlight rating, adopt the pro-free speech Chicago Statement, and adopt an official commitment to institutional neutrality. URI should respond clearly and forcefully to defend free speech whenever censorship occurs or is demanded. Doing so will demonstrate the university's commitment to free speech and build community trust that the administration will defend expressive rights.
